Baby Moses

Exodus 2:1-10

God sends surprising people to help and protect us.

I wonder...

- How Moses' sister felt watching him in the river.
- Why the Pharaoh's daughter wanted to take care of him.
- Who God wants me to help now or some day in the future.

Saved by a Friend

Caleb and his sister Liza loved to skateboard up and down the sidewalks in their neighborhood. But one neighbor, Mr. King, always scowled at the kids as they rolled by.

Once, after Caleb performed an awesome 360 off Mr. King's curb, the old man stormed out of his house toward Caleb, yelling, "I hope you fall and break your leg!"

They skated as fast as they could until they got home.

"What a loser," Liza said.

"We'll have to skateboard when he's not home," Caleb said.

The next day Liza and Caleb saw Mr. King leave in his car. They started skateboarding down the sidewalk toward his house. Suddenly, Caleb lost his balance and crashed on the sidewalk. "Oooowww!" screamed Caleb. "My leg!"

Liza looked up and saw Mr. King's daughter, Mia, come running toward Caleb. "Are you all right?" She reached for his ankle. "Oh, it's starting to swell. Let's get you to the porch, and I'll get you some ice."

"What if your dad comes back?" Caleb asked.

"It'll be okay," said Mia. "My dad can be grumpy, but he's not so bad." She and Liza helped Caleb up. "Don't worry – if my dad comes back, I'll protect you."
